Cycle up into the Welsh hills (the easy way) following the River Teme to its source. Spectacular views across Offa's Dyke. Two border market towns. Two rivers, Teme and Lugg. Traditional hill farming. Your first night's stop is in the Teme valley before you head over the hills via Knighton to Presteigne, the old county town of Radnorshire.

Cycling is easy along the river valleys, with a hilly bit on the second day. Total 53 miles. Opportunities for longer rides each day.

Day 1. Petchfield Farm to Knighton 14 miles: Cycle to Knighton following the River Teme on an idyllic lane. Visit a roman village for lunch, detour to visit Hopton Castle, Norman churches or just picnic by the river & we guarantee you will see kingfishers. Stay overnight in Knighton; a farming market town, situated on Offa's Dyke in a glorious part of the Teme Valley

Day 2. Knighton to Presteigne. 18 or 22 miles: Cross Glyndwr's Way and Offa's Dyke to cycle deep into the Welsh hill country - with magnificent views. Visit Knucklas Castle (reputedly the home of Queen Guinevere) or if you are feeling energetic, detour to visit the "Spaceguard Observatory". Stay overnight in Presteigne - the historic county town of Old Radnorshire. You must visit the impressive Judges Lodging Museum, and look out for Presteigne's eclectic cultural events – from the electric bike "tour de Presteigne", the "Sheep Music Festival!", classical concerts, and art exhibitions at The Rodd.

Day 3. Presteigne to Petchfield Farm 15 miles: Return to Petchfield Farm, via the water meadows of The River Lugg & off road through a Nature Reserve. Stop for lunch at the renowned Riverside Inn or make a short detour to visit Wigmore Castle.
